

QUESTIONS TO ASK When Studying the Bible

The Context

WHO wrote this passage?
WHEN & WHY did they write it?
HOW does it relate to passages that are before and/or after it?
HOW would the original audience have understood this passage?

What shines from the passage?

What stood out to you as you read this passage? What inspires, challenges, or encourages you? Did something strike you as new or fresh?

Did this passage raise any questions?

Did these verses raise any questions as you read? Did anything surprise or confuse you?

Where do we see Jesus in these verses?

All of Scripture points back to Jesus. How does this passage point back to Jesus? What in this passage helped you see more of Jesus and his cross, or what moved you to love him more?

How can I apply what I've learned?

What changes do you think God wants you to make in your attitude, words, or actions? Identify and commit to something you sense the Spirit is leading you to do in obedience to this text. Make it specific and personal.

Who can I share this with?

Write down the name of someone who might benefit from hearing what you've seen in the Bible.

Why are these verses in the Bible?

Why did God include this passage? What might the Bible lose if this passage was left out? What's the author's main point? Try to sum up your answer in one sentence.

QUESTIONS TO ASK When Studying the Bible

The Context

WHO wrote this passage?
WHEN & WHY did they write it?
HOW does it relate to passages that are before and/or after it?
HOW would the original audience have understood this passage?

What shines from the passage?

What stood out to you as you read this passage? What inspires, challenges, or encourages you? Did something strike you as new or fresh?

Did this passage raise any questions?

Did these verses raise any questions as you read? Did anything surprise or confuse you?

Where do we see Jesus in these verses?

All of Scripture points back to Jesus. How does this passage point back to Jesus? What in this passage helped you see more of Jesus and his cross, or what moved you to love him more?

How can I apply what I've learned?

What changes do you think God wants you to make in your attitude, words, or actions? Identify and commit to something you sense the Spirit is leading you to do in obedience to this text. Make it specific and personal.

Who can I share this with?

Write down the name of someone who might benefit from hearing what you've seen in the Bible.

Why are these verses in the Bible?

Why did God include this passage? What might the Bible lose if this passage was left out? What's the author's main point? Try to sum up your answer in one sentence.

QUESTIONS TO ASK When Studying the Bible

The Context

WHO wrote this passage?
WHEN & WHY did they write it?
HOW does it relate to passages that are before and/or after it?
HOW would the original audience have understood this passage?

What shines from the passage?

What stood out to you as you read this passage? What inspires, challenges, or encourages you? Did something strike you as new or fresh?

Did this passage raise any questions?

Did these verses raise any questions as you read? Did anything surprise or confuse you?

Where do we see Jesus in these verses?

All of Scripture points back to Jesus. How does this passage point back to Jesus? What in this passage helped you see more of Jesus and his cross, or what moved you to love him more?

How can I apply what I've learned?

What changes do you think God wants you to make in your attitude, words, or actions? Identify and commit to something you sense the Spirit is leading you to do in obedience to this text. Make it specific and personal.

Who can I share this with?

Write down the name of someone who might benefit from hearing what you've seen in the Bible.

Why are these verses in the Bible?

Why did God include this passage? What might the Bible lose if this passage was left out? What's the author's main point? Try to sum up your answer in one sentence.

“All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, so that the servant of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work.”

2 Timothy 3:16-17

“All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, so that the servant of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work.”

2 Timothy 3:16-17

“All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, so that the servant of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work.”

2 Timothy 3:16-17